

TESTIMONIALS

I attended People Biz, Inc. "Coaching Clinic" this month and it was worth the trip from Florida to Austin! Every manager who has direct reports should consider taking this workshop to improve their listening skills, increase employee retention, and gain the tools to be a better manager by becoming a better coach. I highly recommend this course and I encourage you to find 2 days because in that short time you can actually learn how to improve your business and inspire your team.

The thoughts, structure and information shared in this class will have a profound impact on my business, my employees and in my personal life.

Maureen Borzacchiello, Owner, Creative Display Solutions, New York

I attended a Coaching Clinic that Alicia Marie presented and was amazed at the knowledge that I gained! I originally signed up for just the PHR credit, but left with a whole new awareness of myself, those that I work with and am surrounded by. On a conference call with my supervisor and a few Execs', we were discussing another employee and it hit me what type of personality each member of the call was! With this newfound knowledge I was able to guide the conversation so everyone was on the same page and I left feeling I now knew exactly how to relate to those that I support daily. I would recommend Alicia's Coaching Clinic to anyone. I promise you, you will come out of this clinic with a new perspective in everything you deal with!

Michelle Lopez, HR Director, Capstone Management Company

People Biz, Inc held one of the most engaging sessions I've ever attended. The Coaching Clinic addressed a ton of real-world situations and I am having good success with a number of their techniques. I have recommended this Clinic for all of my managers.
